Frequently Asked Questions

Is the school “accredited?”

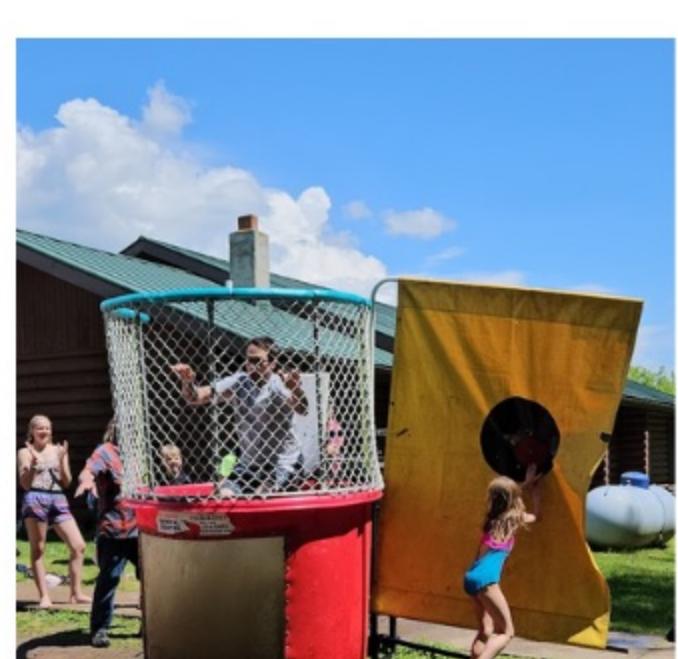

Accredited is a vague definition. Different accrediting bodies exist all over the country that support different types of schools. We are a private institution, so we are not accredited by any public entity. We are a start up member of the Association of Classical Christian Schools (ACCS). Since we are new, we have the goal of reaching fully accredited status with the ACCS. within three years. A child that graduates from Imago Dei will be fully prepared and qualified to attend all types of four year colleges and universities.

Calendar of Events

A LOOK AT MAY

Student Section

I really like math, science, recess, lunch and the teachers. Some of my favorite memories from this school year have been going to Mrs. B's house and when we went to the Wilderness Walk.

Interested in helping IDA's mission?

You can directly meet our current student and school's needs through giving to the following.

- We are in need of some new playground balls, yard games; like spikeball, cornhole, etc..., volleyball net, bases for kickball, etc... You can drop them off at the school.
- Consider becoming a sponsor for the Gala in July. Sponsors receive advertising and free tickets starting at a $300 donation.
- Tuition includes covering the cost of the consumables students use and keep. IDA still need to purchase the Textbooks, Read A loud Sets, & Teacher Manuals. Donate any amount to help off set that cost as we continue to build those resources.

Please indicate on your giving submission which item you would like to help with.

You can mail your donation to Imago Dei Academy PO Box 346 Ladysmith, WI 54848

TEACHER'S CORNER

Mrs. Zimmerman, Lower Grammar

Dear Summer,

We've all long awaited your presence. Trudging through the first days of fall, the cold winter, books

Hold on to your hats because Nov upon books, tests upon tests and lectures. has been flying by. Two exciting new happenings in the logic All the while not realizing what was at work, hidden on the inside. new students to the Logic

Growing in faith, increasing in confidence, excelling in studies, improving our skills, finding our friends, which have been great adventures. have been fitting in very well and are laughing with each other, and filling our hearts.

Oh, summer....when you're gone we miss you, but when you're here....the room is empty, the books are closed, the crowd is quiet, and the silence has a solemn tone of memories.

Until the days grow shorter, I pray that you take this Summer and cherish all that it's worth, glean in the little moments, get out in the sunshine, end the day with dirty feet and hang your hat under the stars.

The gift of today should not be wasted on our rush to get to tomorrow.

Sincerely,

this blessed teacher
