The Association of Classical Christian Schools

For Christ and His Kingdom

To restore a Christian paideia, we want to restore the patterns of thought and life that have enriched lives in all times and places. We do this by building classical schools and Christian communities, helping parents find schools, and promoting the critical importance of classical Christian education (CCE) on a national level.

TEACHER'S CORNER

Mrs. Sitler, Choir Teacher

Music is words, notes, rhythms and so many other enjoyable forms used in choir.

In the elementary choir, grades one through four, we are learning about notes, rests, and their value, and other early music theory. We're clapping their rhythms, enjoying some fun songs, and learning some new ones.

In our middle school and high school choirs, we are working with a couple of rounds to start hearing and learning about harmony and getting ready to choose songs we want to do for our Veterans Day program and for the Christmas program.

We are looking forward to opportunities to participate in solo and ensemble contests this year and possibly some will be auditioning for the national honors choir for the ACCS Convention in Dallas next summer. Just a lot of exciting things happening in music this year.

I was doing cursive and today was Genesis 22:7-8, and Isaac spoke unto Abraham, his father and said, "Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb," and Abraham said, "My son God will provide himself a lamb forth for the burnt offering."

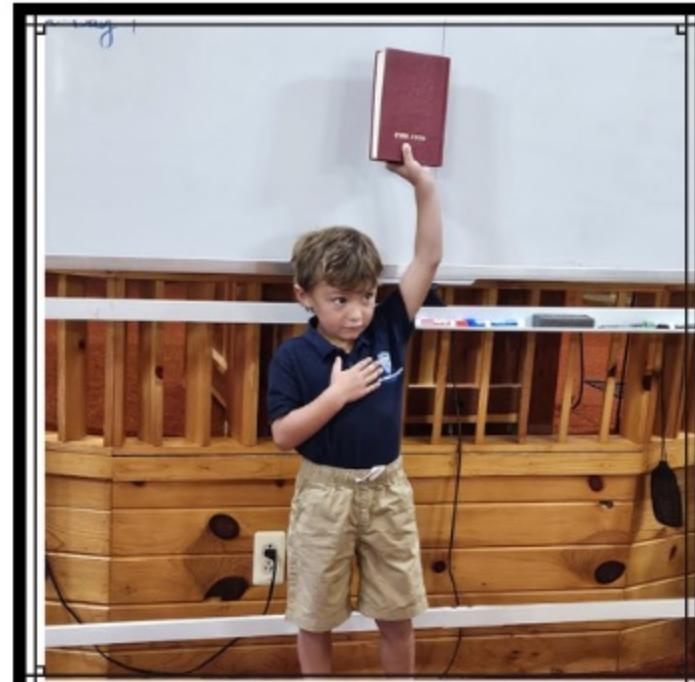

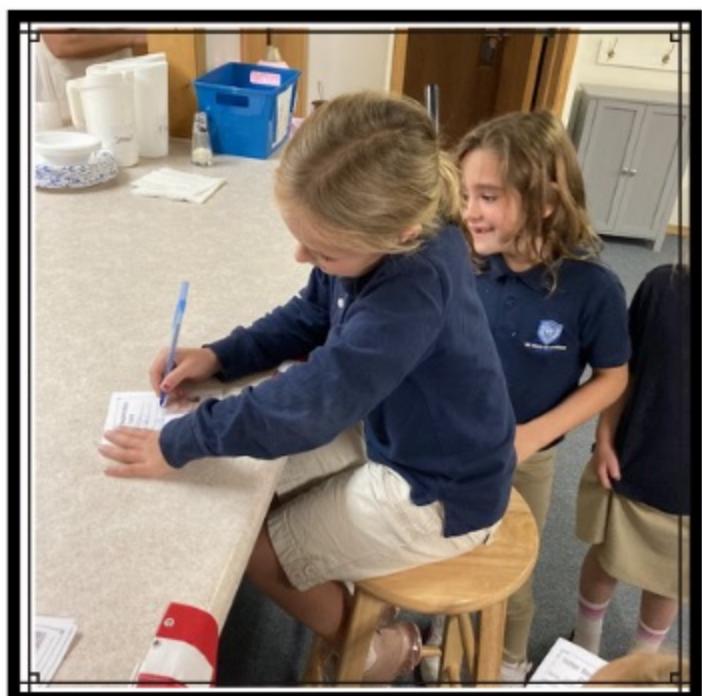

I thought it is a prophesy that he will provide himself a lamb for the offering. I thought that was interesting.
